- All holidays are taken into account when Tuition is calculated. Therefore, while there are 52 weeks in a year, only 48 weeks are taken into account when charging tuition.
- If you miss any classes during your contract time, you can make up classes by appointment before your current contract expires. However, free classes cannot be made up.
- There will be times when the studio will be closed for events. While it is not required, students are highly encouraged to participate, as participation will allow students to grow and develop their confidence.
- The events listed on this calendar may be subject to change without notice.
